Community-led Adivasi education · Gudalur, the Nilgiris

"The highest education is a life in harmony with all existence."

Only 1 in 3 Adivasi children who start Class 1 reach Class 10.

In the Gudalur valley, the dropout cliff is steepest exactly when it matters most.

For 30 years, Vidyodaya has been changing that – an education rooted in Adivasi culture, language and land, built by the community, for the community.

Now we're building a permanent home for learning.

The first Adivasi-owned residential campus in the Nilgiris – for children aged 4 to 18, so no child has to leave their culture behind to stay in school. Phase 1 is underway. Walk with us.
